

Islamic Studies

Faith in Angels, Faith in Prophets, Faith in Books

MLO 1.2.2

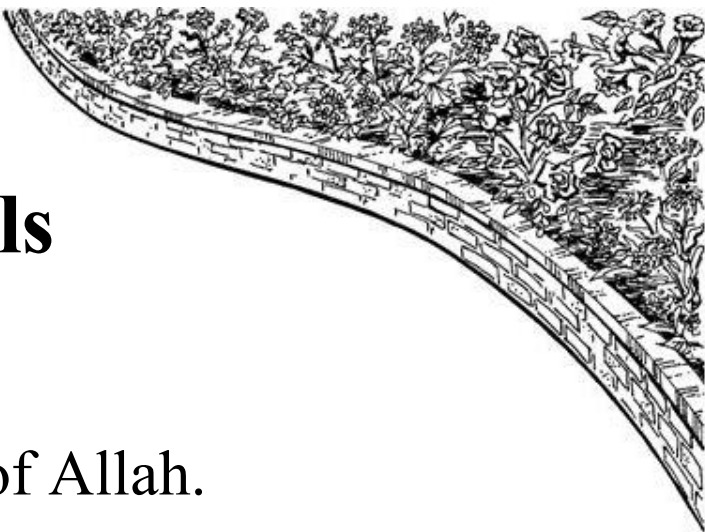

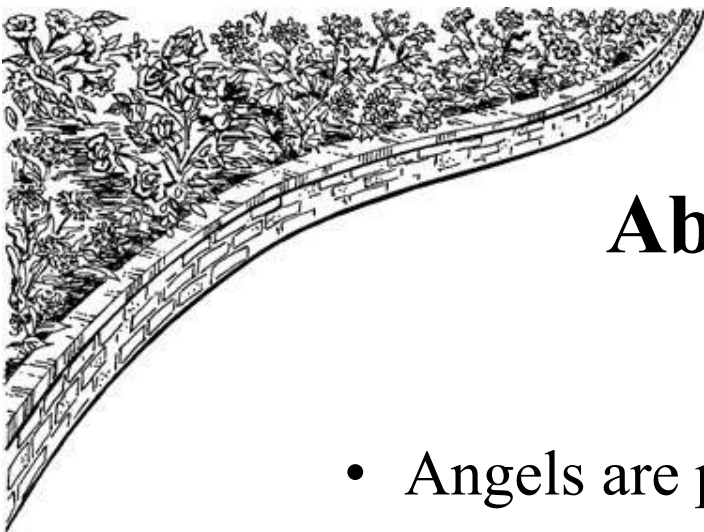

Learning about the names, abilities, and duties of God's angels, and understanding their roles as His obedient servants who carry out divine commands

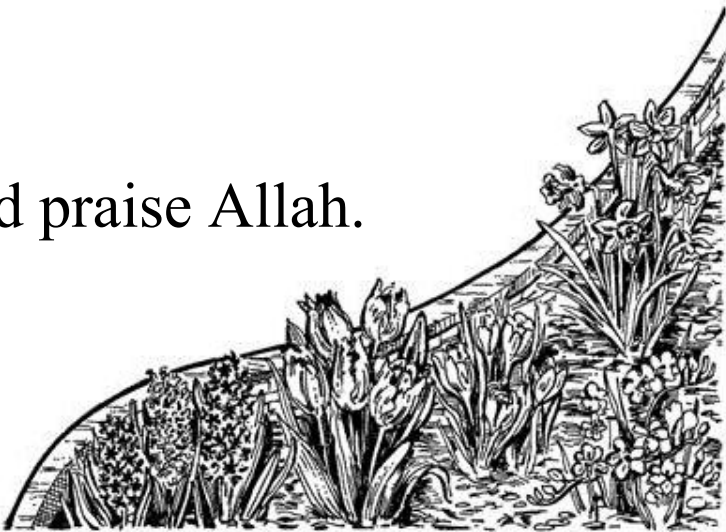

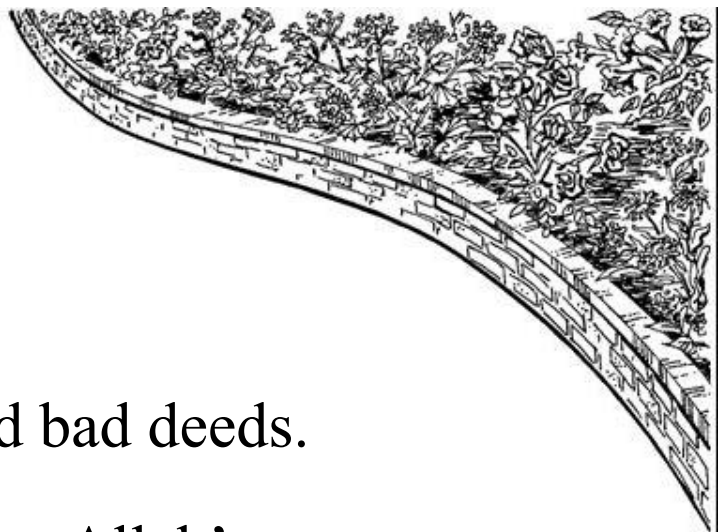

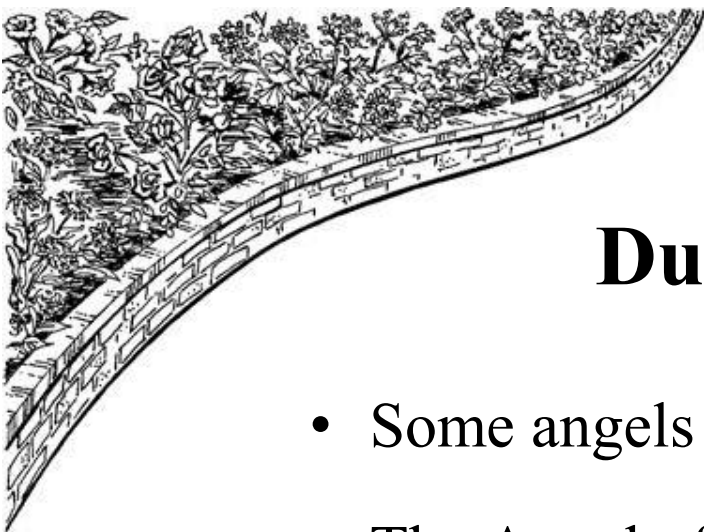

Number & Names of Angels

- Only Allah knows the exact number of angels.
 - 70,000 angels visit the Kaaba every day.
 - Jibreel: Brings revelation.
 - Mika'eel: Associated with rain.
 - Israfeel: Will blow the Horn.
 - Malik: Guardian of Hell.
-
-

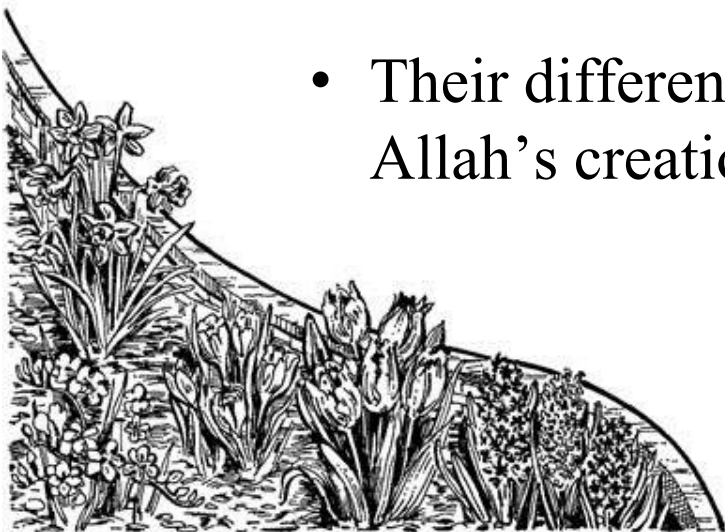

Abilities of Angels

- Angels are powerful creations of Allah.
 - They can take different forms, including human form.
 - They carry out Allah's commands throughout creation.
 - They never disobey Allah.
 - They continuously worship and praise Allah.
-
-

Duties of Angels

- Some angels record our good and bad deeds.
 - The Angel of Death takes souls by Allah's command.
 - Some angels protect and accompany believers.
 - Some angels seek forgiveness for believers.
 - Their different duties show the greatness of Allah's creation.
-
- 