Rights of Parents and Children

MLO 9.2.5

Explaining the rights of children in Islam, interpreting Quranic verses and Hadith, and evaluating parental duties in providing spiritual, moral, and physical care.

Parents as Guardians & Trustees

Guardianship: Every person is responsible for those under their care.

Children are an Amanah: Children are a trust from Allah given to parents.

Accountability: Parents will be questioned about how they fulfilled this responsibility.

Spiritual Protection: The Qur'an commands parents to protect themselves and their families from the Hellfire.

(Qur'an 66:6)

- “And those who believe and whose families follow them in Faith,- to them shall We join their families: Nor shall We deprive them (of the fruit) of aught of their works: (Yet) is each individual in pledge for his deeds.” (Surah Al Tur 52:21)
 - The Noble Prophet (PBUH) in this context, said: “When a believer dies, his work ceases to be except in three areas: a perpetual Sadaqa (charity), some useful knowledge he leaves and a righteous son praying for him.” (Sahih Muslim)
