

Civic and Community Management- Lecture# 4

Serving Humanity Without Discrimination

Subject of the Quran

The Quran is a comprehensive guide for humanity, addressing various fundamental aspects of life. The key subjects include:

1. Monotheism (Tawhid) – The Quran emphasizes the oneness of Allah and the importance of worshipping Him alone.
2. Prophethood (Nubuwwah) – It discusses the lives and missions of various prophets, including Adam, Noah, Abraham, Moses, Jesus, and Muhammad (peace be upon them all).
3. Revelation (Wahy) – The Quran is regarded as the final revelation from Allah, providing laws and guidance.
4. Afterlife (Akhirah) – It describes life after death, resurrection, judgment, and the consequences of one's actions (heaven and hell).
5. Ethics and Morality – The Quran provides ethical guidelines for personal conduct, social justice, and interactions with others.
6. Law (Sharia) – It outlines legal principles related to marriage, inheritance, and criminal justice.
7. Worship and Rituals – The Quran details practices such as prayer (Salah), fasting (Sawm), charity (Zakah), and pilgrimage (Hajj).
8. Social Justice – It promotes the rights of the poor, orphans, women, and other vulnerable groups.
9. Creation and the Universe – It describes the creation of the universe and Allah's signs in nature.
10. Human Relationships – The Quran offers guidance on family life, community relations, and treating others with kindness.

These themes collectively guide individuals and societies toward a righteous and balanced way of life in accordance with Allah's will.

Human Being

The teachings of the Quran and the example of great humanitarians emphasize the dignity and responsibility of every human being. Humans are considered stewards of the earth and are encouraged to lead righteous lives by embodying compassion, justice, and service to others. The Quran highlights the significance of:

- Human dignity – Every person is created with inherent worth and value.
- Moral responsibility – Individuals are accountable for their actions.
- Compassion and service – Helping others is a fundamental principle.
- Equality – All humans are equal regardless of race, status, or background.

These principles help build a just and harmonious society where people support and uplift one another.

Personalities Who Served Humanity Without Discrimination

Abdul Sattar Edhi

Abdul Sattar Edhi was a Pakistani philanthropist, social worker, and humanitarian. He founded the Edhi Foundation, one of the largest charitable organizations in Pakistan.

- Early Life – Born on January 1, 1928, in Bantva, Gujarat (British India), Edhi migrated to Pakistan after partition in 1947.
- Edhi Foundation – Established in 1951 as a small dispensary in Karachi, it grew into a large network offering healthcare, emergency services, orphanages, shelters, and drug rehabilitation.
- Ambulance Service – Operates Pakistan's largest and most efficient ambulance service.
- Humanitarian Work – Helped people regardless of race, religion, or background.

- Recognition and Awards – Received numerous national and international awards, including the Ramon Magsaysay Award for Public Service and the Lenin Peace Prize.
- Legacy – Passed away on July 8, 2016. His foundation continues his mission of serving humanity.

Video Resource:

Abdul Sattar Edhi Documentary

Mother Teresa

Mother Teresa was a Catholic nun and missionary who dedicated her life to serving the poor and sick.

Video Resource:

Mother Teresa Documentary

Diana, Princess of Wales

Princess Diana was a British royal known for her humanitarian work and advocacy for marginalized communities.

Commonalities Between These Humanitarians

Despite their diverse backgrounds, Abdul Sattar Edhi, Mother Teresa, and Princess Diana shared the following traits:

1. Compassion and Empathy – Dedicated their lives to helping those in need with immense care.
2. Service Without Discrimination – Assisted people regardless of race, religion, or social status.
3. Commitment to the Poor and Vulnerable – Focused on helping the sick, poor, and marginalized.
4. Establishment of Charitable Organizations – Founded initiatives that continue their work today.

5. Global Recognition and Influence – Inspired people worldwide through their humanitarian efforts.
6. Personal Sacrifice – Faced hardships but remained devoted to their cause.
7. Legacy of Kindness and Service – Their contributions continue to impact lives globally.

These individuals stand as powerful examples of selfless service, inspiring people to contribute positively to society.

Conclusion

The principles of serving humanity without discrimination are emphasized in the Quran and reflected in the lives of great humanitarians like Abdul Sattar Edhi, Mother Teresa, and Princess Diana. Their efforts remind us of the importance of compassion, empathy, and social justice in building a better world.